

I want to make sure that I understand. This will stretch across account numbers within a group. It will total all those SEQNO's as if they were one account in the present set up and it will use the administrative name, address, etc. from the group account? Does this conflict at all with the requirements of your other clients?